THREE CENTURIES IN THE HEART OF EUROPE

(Czech and European society, 16th – 18th Century)

25th & 26th of November 2020 in Hradec Králové

Three Centuries in the Heart of Europe (Czech and European Society, the 16th – 18th Century) is the name of the fourth year of the International Doctoral Conference organized by Ph.D. students of the Department of Auxiliary Sciences of History and the Archival Studies of the Philosophical Faculty of the University of Hradec Králové.

As in previous years, this year's conference aims are to organize a meeting for historians whose topics focus on the period from the 16th to 18th century and offer new perspectives on the variety of themes and topics.

Papers on religion, politics, economics and culture of early modern history are welcomed. We will be also pleased if papers are focused on Battle on the White Mountain with regard to this year's anniversary. We believe that our conference offers an ideal opportunity for Ph.D., BA and MA students to meet.

Basic Informations

The conference is primarily intended for Ph.D. students, but BA and MA participants are also welcome. Research presentation time is 20 minutes. The organisers have the right to choose which papers will be presented at the conference. Colleagues and academics, who would like to participate at conference as listeners, are also welcomed. Papers are accepted in Czech and English.
